Remembrance Day 11 November 2007

Nation Unites in Remembrance

John Stapleton and Paul Maley | "The Australian" November 12, 2007

FROM the Australian War Memorial in Canberra to tiny rural hamlets, the nation stood briefly united yesterday for a minute's silence - at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month.

Under the traditional words, "Lest We Forget" and "To Our Glorious Dead", wreaths were laid at cenotaphs around the country by everyone from John Howard to ordinary citizens, from premiers and a host of civic and military dignitaries to the grieving families of returned and fallen soldiers.

Ceremonies for Remembrance Day, including the playing of The Last Post, marked the 89th anniversary of the end of World War I, and the deaths of more than 100,000 Australian soldiers in overseas conflicts. In Canberra, the Prime Minister said the deaths in Afghanistan of Trooper David Pearce and Sergeant Matthew Locke had been a sad reminder of the nature of sacrifice in war on behalf of a free people. "Whether the deaths occurred in Gallipoli or the Somme, in the Western Desert, Kokoda or Milne Bay, in bomber command over Europe, in Long Tan or Oruzgan Province in Afghanistan, all Australians who have died in conflict have died for a common ideal ... that men and women might choose how to live their lives and to shape their futures," he said.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Peter Cartledge

We have prepared a new and hopefully complete list of all our members c/w addresses, 'phone numbers and e-mail addresses.

However in sending out a flyer a couple of weeks ago we sent some to the email addresses we had, and quite a number were returned.

Would you please send an e-mail to Gus raeme.sec@nex.net.au or Guy mail4us@bigpond.net.au or me pcart8@optusnet.com.au so we can make sure your listing with us is correct please?

We would like to send you your copy of the Lightning Flash by email with coloured photos and receive it that much quicker and save on printing and postage for your Association.

Leonie and I together with all members of your Committee of Management would like to wish you and yours all the best wishes for Christmas (and hasn't it come around so quickly!!) and a Happy, Healthy and Safe New Year.

Peter Cartledge
President

SECRETARY'S REPORT

The secretarial work load has been steady with the annual dues coming in. I do wish to report a new member Robert Bray. Welcome Robert.

Seasons Greetings to all.

WELFARE REPORT

Reg Cox

Our Welfare Officer, Reg Cox, visited Phil Cook at Drouin. Phil has had a carpal tunnel operation to his hand, unfortunately an infection developed whilst at the Warragul Hospital.

They could not stop the bleeding. Phil went up to his son Terry who is a doctor at Mildura. Terry put Phil in hospital for 3 weeks and finally cleared the infection.

SOCIAL REPORT

Peter Cartledge

Twenty-eight of us had a pleasant weekend in Canberra including some friends of Members.

We had a couple from The Old Sappers Association join us and they are now asking where to and when is the next trip!! So come on all members give our social functions a try and find out for yourselves!!

In this issue you will find a tear-off for our upcoming 65th Corps All Ranks Dinner. Please look hard at attending and return it whether you are attending or not then we can see if you are at least reading the Lightning Flash and interested in our functions!

I have included a copy of the flyer in this Lightning Flash if you have not received it earlier. You will see all our functions laid out there with details.

Coming up apart from our Corps dinner is our Annual pilgrimage and service at The Shrine of Remembrance on Sunday 3rd February 2008.

This is followed by our Annual Luncheon to honour our Widows and Life Members. This Luncheon should be attended by ALL who are able to come, to remember and honour members who have passed away and in some small way to host their Widows, while honouring our Life Members who have put in so much time and effort into making our Association the great organisation that it is today.

I am very disappointed to report the fact that our friends of the Bandiana Chapter have had to cancel their dinner which they put so much work into arranging. (Due to lack of interest, the members asked for it but did not support it!!) We have never (I don't think) had to cancel a function over the last 10 or more years but we have sailed very "close to the wind" several times.

I will pass these comments over to you, the members, and after reading them think long and hard as to what YOU CAN DO. To quote a saying "It is not what the Association can do for you BUT what you can do for The Association".

Social Coordinator.

Good Military Advice

- "Never trade luck for skill."
- The three most common expressions (or famous last words) in aviation are: "Why is it doing that?", "Where are we?" and "Oh Shit!"
- "Progress in airline flying: now a flight attendant can get a pilot pregnant."
- "Mankind has a perfect record in aviation; we never left one up there!"
- "Flashlights are tubular metal containers kept in a flight bag for the purpose of storing dead batteries."
- "Flying the airplane is more important than radioing your plight to a person on the ground incapable of understanding or doing anything about it."
- "Just remember, if you crash because of weather, your funeral will be held on a sunny day."

COLONEL COMMANDANT'S END OF YEAR REPORT 2007

COL Terry Beaton

Greetings to All,

It was with the deepest regret that I tendered my resignation as both the Colonel Commandant (RAEME) -Victoria and Tasmanian Region and as Corps Historian to BRIG David Welch on Saturday, 1 Sep 07, effective from 30 Sep 07, due to health and welfare demands of aging parents.

BRIG Welch reluctantly accepted my resignation on Monday, 3 Sep 07, but requested that my departure be delayed until the end of October 2007, to permit my attendance at the Corps Conference, where he intended to deliver a vote of appreciation to all departing Colonel Commandants. Unfortunately, I was unable to accept this kind offer due to my current domestic situation. Moreover, I felt that my earlier departure would permit another volunteer to be elected, who could then attend the Corps Committee Meeting and Conference, thereby being in a better position to continue the rebuilding of "Corps Ethos" within this Region.

Unbelievably the passing of my Mother on 25 Jun 07, set of a string of deaths touching our family, as well as health and welfare issues associated with aging "outlaws" and friends. It has "knocked me for six" and drained me of enough willpower and motivation for me to recognise that I can no longer give the same level of commitment to the Corps, nor dedicate myself to the role of Colonel Commandant; especially as I have never been content to just be a token figurehead - which has sometimes upset former Corps members.

As a volunteer looking after the Veteran Community, we are taught that family comes first and as such I must now concentrate on my family before "the Corps".

Termination of my duties at the end of this month will still enable me to complete my current obligations with two activities associated with 3 Recovery Company.

Having recently enjoyed the warm hospitality and friendship of the RAEME Association of Tasmania at their Annual Dinner, I cannot think of a better Victorian unit of "Bluebells" with whom to end my time as Colonel Commandant.

I sincerely hope that all the hard work by everybody over the last three years will continue.

I urge everybody to support the Victorian Association's 2007 RAEME Corps Dinner on 30 Nov 07 and hope that the annual "RAEME Day of Remembrance" will be continued by Regional Groups, despite my departure as it's instigator.

Hopefully when things settled down on the domestic front, I will be able to offer my support again to help "Corps Brothers" and their families.

I wish everybody good health, happiness and safety, and truly thank all those who have diligently supported me throughout my thoroughly enjoyable and very rewarding time as Colonel Commandant.

Yours - "With skill"

Terry Beaton
